

THE MUSICKER'S GAZETTE

No. 10

WALKING BOXES PRODUCTIONS

SHOW NOTES

Cast:
Musicker/Dmitri-Tshaya..... J Roth

Script and music conceived by J Roth. Turn to Page 2 for lists of the story's principal characters and locations.

Much research went into this production, turn to Page 4 for a select bibliography.

EPISODE III

'The Musicker's Balalaika' is the third episode of the Musicker's Misadventures. Knowledge of the plot-line developed through the first two episodes is not essential for enjoyment of this production, but Page 2 has recaps of the previous episodes for those who are interested.

WALKING BOXES SENDS THANKS

Thanks to Papa Steve, Chris/Mary/Scott & the UMC crew, Dave Geister, Paul Cameron, Malia Burkhart, Rob Reece, all our kind sponsors (please support them with your business), and dear friends and acquaintances in the former Soviet Union.

THE ROMA/GYPSIES

The race of people called the Roma (sometimes Rom) have a long history of being subjected to persecution. This persecution reached a terrible climax during WWII. Learn more on Page 4. For translations of Roma terms used in the tale, turn to Page 4.

UPCOMING SHOWS FROM WALKING BOXES

Please visit Walking Boxes online at www.walkingboxes.com to check for upcoming productions, read about our artists, get on our email list, browse through the Show & CD Archives, and listen to music samples from J Roth and other local artists.

FOLLOWING THE SPIRITUAL FRINGE CREDO

Walking Boxes, with income earned from this production, chooses to support the following organizations: the English Learning Center (for Immigrant and Refugee Families), the Solar Oven Society, ME3(Minnesotans for an Energy-Efficient Economy), Our Lady of Good Counsel, and the Environmental Defense Action Fund.

5925 Nicollet Ave. S., Minneapolis
612-869-5812

Hours (Weather Permitting)
Mon-Sat: 8-6 ■ Sun: 9-5

SERVING THE TWIN CITIES
FRESH TEX-MEX FOR OVER 30 YEARS

4820 Chicago Avenue South
612-822-2104